OPEN MARATHON IS SLATED FOR MAY

NEW YORK, April 15.—Another cunner looking for Marathon honors with the hope of a contest with $1, Yees, Dorando, or Longbout, has arrived here. He is 'Indian' Simpson, who has been winding laurels in Canada. This is Simpson's first appearance here since he ran a five-nife relay race with Alfred Smubb in Madison Square Garden. Next Sunday he will go over the Marathon course at Celtic park with Svanberg, the Swedish runner. Simpson is credited with beating Appleby, an Englishman, who is said to be faster than Shrubb at fifteen or twenty miles. Judzing from the talk, another Marathon derby will be held here in May, open to all professionals.

CHAMPION WRESTLERS WILL APPEAR HERE

Frank Gotch and Klank Will Give Exhibition at Salt Palace.

Manager Heagren of the Salt Palace bicycle track received a telegram Thursday from Emil Klank, manager of Frank Gotch, accepting terms for the appearance of the world's champion wrestler here during the early part of May. Gotch is on his way to the Pacific coast, and has this city in his linerary. Heagren took advantage of the opportunity, and has guaranteed Gotch a good-sized purse to give an exhibition at the Salt Palace. The champion agrees to throw any four men in Utah in half an hour. Klank and Gotch will also give an exhibition.

Klank will be remembered as the Salt Lake strong boy who nearly twisted an Italian's head off in a match in this city several years ago, with a full Nelson. The Italian was riding a bicycle around the world, starting from Rome, and, incidentally, had won the Police Gazette championship medal, and came here to throw everybody in sight. Klank objected.

Heagren also announces that the bley-cle track will be ready for training at the end of next week. At present the racing men are doing all their work on the road, doing most of their riding be-tween this city and Farmington, and re-ports have it that they are all in pretty road countilion. good condition.
